

Author Report Rubric

Name: _____

Biographical Information:

Total /13

- Name /1
- Dates (birth/death) /2
- Where he/she was lives or was raised /2
- Careers /3
- Education /2
- Parents /1
- Marriage/children /2

Influences:

Total /9

- Childhood /2
- Adulthood /2
- Career /1
- Other professionals who influenced him/her /2
- Inspiration for writing came from... /2

Writing:

Total /7

- What genres did he/she write? /3
- Other famous works? Be careful NOT to list. /4
- Awards won for writing NA

Interesting facts:

Total /2

- What did you learn about him/her that was interesting? If you find something interesting, so will your reader.

Total /31

Once you have this outline in your notes, start highlighting the information in your sheets of information. Be sure not to highlight whole paragraphs or sentences; only what is important. /10

Once you highlight this information, use a new piece of paper and transfer the information to use for your report (prewriting of ideas). Point form using the above subtitles. /5

Now you are ready to start making paragraphs and sentences for your draft. /10

References/citing /20

Classmark and productivity /10

Title page /5

Total /91

I completed the following to the best of my ability:

1. Highlighting: using 3 resources and highlight minimal text date _____
2. Draft work: Prewrite (point form) and organizing draft by topic date _____
3. Draft of author report double spaced, edited and revised date _____
4. Good copy in ink or typed date _____
5. References cited in APA format in my text and on a reference page date _____
6. I was productive in class each day date _____